Admiralty-Office, September 5, 1801.

Copy of a Letter from the Honorable William Cornwallis, Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated off Ushant, the 31st August 1801.

SIR,

I Have the Pleasure of transmitting to you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter from Captain Martin, of His Majesty's Ship Fisgard, by which it appears the Boats of that Ship, the Diamond, and Boadicea have cut out of Corunna a Ship of Twenty Guns, and other Vessels.

Lieutenant Pipon, who commanded the Boats, seems to have conducted the Enterprize with much Gallantry and Judgment; for although exposed to a heavy Fire from the Batteries, yet the Success was accomplished without any Loss; and the Conduct of the Officers and Men who were with him merits my warmest Approbation.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

W. CORNWALLIS.

SIR, Fisgard, off Ferrol, August 21, 1801.

I Beg to inform you, that last Night the Boats of His Majesty's Ships Fisgard, Diamond, and Boadicea attacked the Vessels of the Enemy lying in the Harbour of Corunna, and succeeded in bringing out El Neptuna, a new Ship, pierced for Twenty Guns, belonging to His Catholic Majesty, a Gun-Boat mounting a long Thirty-two-Pounder, and a Merchant Ship, who were moored within the strong Batteries that protect the Port, and so near them that the Sentinels on the Ramparts challenged our People, and immediately commenced a heavy Fire, but the Prizes were towed out with a Degree of Coolness and Perseverance that does infinite Credit to the Officers and Men, and can only be equalled by their Conduct throughout the Affair. I should be very glad, if it were in my Power, to do Justice to the Merits of Lieutenant Pipon, who directed this Enterprize with the most becoming Spirit and Address; but his Success will, I trust, sufficiently recommend him to your Approbation, and the Notice of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I have the Honor to be, &c. T. B. MARTIN.
The Honorable Admiral Cornwallis,

Copy of a Letter from Mr. John Pettigrew, Commander of the Ship Intrepid Letter of Marque, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Barbadoes, 9th July 1801.

S I R,

I Have the Honor to acquaint you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that on the 22d Day of June, in N. Latitude 18 Deg. 25 Min., W. Longitude, per Account, 40 Deg. 10 Min. on board the Ship Intrepid of Liverpool, bearing Letters of Marque, under my Command, having in Company the Ships Dominica Packet and Alfred, I had the good Fortune to capture, after a running Engagement of nearly Two Hours, the Spanish Frigate-built Ship La Galga, commanded by Francisco de Pascadello, and mounting Twenty-four heavy Sixes and Seventy-eight Men, bound to Cadiz or any Port in Spain, loaded with Hides, Cocoa, Indigo, and Copper in Bars, the Quantity not yet known; I am happy to say we sustained no other Loss than that of one of my brave Men, and our Sails and Rigging a good deal cut; the other Ships have not sustained any Damage, except the Prize, which has suffered considerably in both Hull, and Masts, and Rigging; I arrived here on the 4th of July, with the Prize and above-mentioned Ships.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Extract of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Sir James Saumarez, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated in Rosia-Bay, the 26th July 1801.

I Herewith enclose Captain Hood's Report of the Venerable's very gallant Action with the French Ship Formidable, the Morning of the 13th Instant; and also the Returns of her Killed and Wounded.

His Majesty's Ship Venerable, at Sea, 13th July 1801.

SIR,

YOU must have observed my giving Chase to an Enemy's Line of Battle Ship at Daybreak, this Morning, at Seven, she hoisted French Colours, and I could perceive her to be an Eighty Gun Ship; at half-past, being within point-blank Shot, the Enemy commenced firing his Stern Chace Guns, which I did not return for fear of retarding our Progress, until the light and baffling Airs threw the Two Ships Broadside-to, within Musket Shot, when a steady and warm Conflict was kept up for an Hour and a Half, and we had closed within Pistol-Shot, the Enemy principally directing his Fire to our Masts and Rigging; I had at this Time the Misfortune to perceive the Main-Mast to fall overboard, the Fore and Mizen-Mast nearly in the same State, and since gone, the Ship being near the Shore close to the Castle of Sancti Petri, the Enemy escaped. It was with much Difficulty I was enabled to get the Venerable off her Cables and Anchors, all disabled, and it was only by the great Exertion of the Thames with the Boats you sent me, she was saved, after being on Shore for some Time.

I shall have no Occasion to comment on the Bravery of the Officers and Ship's Company in this Action, who had with much Patience and Perseverance suffered great Fatigue by their Exertions to get the Ship to Sea, and not Five Hundred Men able to go to Quarters; but I beg Leave to add, I have been most ably supported by Lieutenant Lillicrap, Second of the Venerable, (First absent,) all the other Officers and Men who have my warmest Recommendation, and have to lament the Loss of Mr. Williams, Master, an excellent Officer, with many other valuable People killed and wounded; a List of which I have the Honor to enclose.

I am, &c. S. HOOD.

Sir James Saumarez, Bart. Rear-Admiral of the Blue, &c. &c. &c.

A List of Killed and Wounded in Action with a French Ship of Eighty Guns, on the 23d July 1801.

Mr. John Williams, Master; Fifteen Seamen, Two Marines, killed.

Mr. Thomas Church, Lieutenant; Mr. John Snell, Boatswain; Mr. George Melfy and Mr. Charles Pardoe, Midshipmen; Seventy-three Seamen, Ten Marines, wounded.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Sir James Saumarez to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated in Rosia-Bay the 2d August 1801.

SIR,

I Herewith enclose, for their Lordships' Information, Two Letters from Lieutenant Wooldridge, of His Majesty's Hired Armed Brig Pasley, giving an Account of the Capture of the El Golondrina Spanish Privateer on the 25th of June, and of an Action on the 21st of July with a Spanish Xebec, of Twenty-two Guns, which reflects the highest Credit on Lieutenant Wooldridge, his Officers, and Men; also of the Capture of the Spanish Privateer Schooner El Atanacia on the 29th following.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

JAMES SAUMAREZ.

SIR, Pasley, Gibraltar, July 9, 1801.

I Beg Leave to inform you, that on the 29th Ultimo, off Cape St. Vincent, I captured the Spanish Felucca Privateer El Golondrina, of Two Guns, with Small Arms, and a Complement of Thirty-three Men, Nine of which had previously been sent in a small Guersey Lugger and a Portuguese Schooner, which she had captured during her Cruise.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

W. WOOLDRIDGE.

Rear-Admiral Sir James Saumarez.

His Majesty's Armed Brig Pasley, July 30, 1801.

SIR,

I Have the Honor of informing you, that on my Return from Minorca, in Execution of your Orders, on Tuesday the 21st Instant, the Island of Carbera N. E. Six or Seven Leagues, I fell in with a Spanish Man of War Xebec, of Twenty-two Guns, which at Seven A. M., after being hailed by her with Orders to send my Boat on board, I brought to Action within Pistol-Shot, and continued it until a Quarter past Eight, when she was perfectly silenced, but took Advantage of her Sweeps, it being nearly calm; and although every Exertion was used with the Pasley's Sweeps, I had the Mortification of seeing her get close in with Ivica before Night.

I am much obliged to Mr. Lyons the Master, for his cool and steady Conduct during the Action, and

Mr. Douglas, Midshipman of the Caesar, a Passenger, who assisted at the Guns. The remaining Officers and Ship's Company behaved with Credit to themselves and my Satisfaction; but I am sorry to add One of them was killed, and Two others wounded.

And on the 29th following, off Cape Tresforcas, I captured the Spanish Privateer Schooner El Atamaria, pierced for Fourteen Guns, but only Seven on board, long Twelves and Sixes, and Fifty-five Men, belonging to Malaga, out Ten Days, and had captured a Schooner, from Oran, laden with Cattle for Gibraltar; and have the Honor to be, &c.

W. WOOLDRIDGE.

AT the Court at Weymouth, the 7th of September 1801,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Order in Council, dated the Tenth of December last, it was ordered by His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty, by an Act passed in the Forty-first Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to authorize His Majesty, from Time to Time, to prohibit the Exportation of Provisions or Food;" and mentioned in the said Order, that from and after the Date of the said Order, until the First Day of October next, no Person or Persons whatsoever, should export, or should load or lay on board any Ship or other Vessel, with the Intent to export from any Port or Place in this Kingdom, the following Articles, viz. Bulls, Cows, Oxen, Calves, Sheep, Lambs, Swine, Beef, Pork, Mutton, Veal, Lamb, whether salted or otherwise, Bacon, Butter, Cheese, Onions, Potatoes, and Pulse of any Sort, Barley hulled, or Pearl Barley, subject to the Provisions and Exceptions in the said Order contained: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty, therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, pursuant to the Powers vested in His Majesty by the said Act, hath thought fit to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Prohibition to export, or to lay on board any Ship or Vessel, with Intent to export any of the Articles as aforesaid, shall continue and remain in force until the Expiration of Six Weeks after the Commencement of the next Session of Parliament, subject to the like Provisions and Exceptions as are contained in His Majesty's said Order of the Tenth December last, and in a subsequent Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing Date the Thirtieth of the said Month of December; and the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Faulkner.

Downing-Street, September 15, 1801.

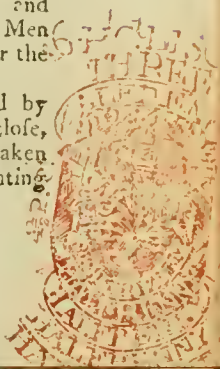

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, has been received at the Office of the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Colonel Fraser, commanding His Majesty's Troops at Gorée, on the Coast of Africa.

MY LORD, Gorée, Africa, June 16, 1801.

I Have the Honor to acquaint your Lordship, that, having received Intelligence that there was a large Ship, under Spanish Colours, laying off Senegal, which had been brought there by Part of the Crew, who, assisted by a Number of Slaves, had murdered the Officers and seized the Vessel on the Southern Coast of Africa; understanding likewise that it had been proposed by Citizen Renaud, as soon as the Cargo was landed, to refit this Ship, attack with her the British Vessels, trading for Gum, in the open Roads of Port Andique, then, renewing the Depredations that had been formerly committed at Sierra Leone and other Settlements, to run with the Plunder for Cayenne, I resolved, if possible, to frustrate those Intentions, by taking or destroying the Spanish Ship while the Cargo was landing, and it was probable the Enemy would be little prepared for making Defence.

Having requested the Assistance of Mr. Olderman, Commander of the Merchant Ship Lucy, of Liverpool, (the only Armed Vessel on this Part of the Coast,) he complied most readily; a few Seamen were procured from the other Traders to reinforce the little Government Schooner, chiefly navigated by Blacks, and a Detachment from this Garrison, consisting of Ensigns M'Dermot and Kingsley, Assistant-Surgeon Ryan, and Forty Men embarked, and sailed on the 8th Instant under the Command of Captain Lloyd.

On the 15th Captain Lloyd returned; and by his Report, which I have the Honor to enclose, your Lordship will see that the Enemy was taken by Surprise, and a new Ship, capable of mounting Thirty Guns on her Main Deck, has been destroyed without the Loss of one Man.

All Persons employed on this Service were Volunteers; and the Alacrity with which they engaged in it merits the highest Praise.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JOHN FRASER, Commandant.

To the Right Honorable Lord Hobart,
 &c. &c. &c.

SIR,

Gorée, June 15, 1801.

I Have the Honor to acquaint you, that in consequence of your Orders I proceeded to the Bar of Senegal with the Detachment under my Command; and on the Morning of the 12th Instant discovered a large Ship at Anchor about Two Miles off the Bar; on our Approach the Crew betook themselves to their Boats; on boarding she was found to be a new Spanish Ship pierced for Thirty Guns, and about Nine Hundred Tons Burthen; that she had been unloaded, stripped of her Sails, Rigging, &c. &c. Finding it impracticable, from the State of the Vessel, and the Wind blowing strong on Shore, to bring her off, I gave Directions to Mr. Crady, Master of the Government Schooner, to set her on Fire, which he executed very much to my Satisfaction, and without any Accident. In Justice to the Officers and Men under my Command, I beg Leave to mention that they displayed the greatest Readiness in executing any Orders I had to give, and had there been any Occasion, would, I am convinced, have conducted themselves in such a Manner as to merit Approbation.

I have, &c. &c.

RICH. LLOYD, Capt. African Corps.
 Colonel Fraser, Commandant.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brass, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorised by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

him to appear at the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions: And if such Person shall refuse to give Security, the Justice may commit him to Gaol till the next Assizes or Quarter Sessions, and until he shall be delivered by due Course of Law. And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

TO MERCHANTS, FACTORS, CAPTAINS of SHIPS, &c. &c. &c.

GENTLEMEN,

I Have received a great Variety of Applications from Merchants and others concerned in Foreign Trade, complaining of the Difficulty they find in procuring the Genuine Dr. Anderson's Sore Pills; several of your Correspondents abroad have repeatedly sent to my Warehouse, No. 165, Strand, Parts of the printed Bills, to ascertain whether they were authentic.

To avoid these Inconveniences in future, I trouble you with this Letter, for the express Purpose of stating the Two distinct Criteria to ascertain the Genuine Pills from dangerous Counterfeit:

1st. My Name, B. H. Inglish, No. 165, Strand, opposite the New Church, is engraved in, and forms a Part of the Stamp, by Order of the Commissioners.

2d. B. H. Inglish is signed at the Bottom of the printed Bills.

To counterfeit the First is a capital Felony under the Stamp Acts.

The Second is punishable both by Indictment and Action at Law for Damages.

An Attention to either of these Two Cautions must prevent Counterfeits, as I am determined to prosecute to the utmost Rigour all Persons who commit either of these Forgeries. I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient Servant,

B. H. INGLISH.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Lord Keith, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Foudroyant, Bay of Aboukir, July 10, 1801.

S I R,

THE enclosed Letter from Captain Pulling, of His Majesty's Sloop the Kangaroo, conveys to you, for the Information of their Lordships, his Detail of a spirited and successful Attack made by that Sloop and the Speedy on a Spanish Convoy anchored on the Coast, and protected by a Battery of Twelve Guns, and a considerable Force of Armed Vessels, which appears to have been executed with much Resolution and Courage.

I trust that their Lordships will honor with their Approbation the Spirit of Enterprize which the Officers and Men engaged in this Service have evinced; and while I have the Power of expressing to their Lordships my Satisfaction with the zealous and active Exertions of Captain Pulling, so soon after his Arrival on this Station, I have most sincere Pleasure in transmitting to them his Testimony to the continued meritorious Conduct, of which Captain Lord Cochrane, and the Officers and Crew of the Speedy, have lately furnished so exemplary a Proof.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

KEITH.

His Majesty's Sloop Kangaroo, One Cable's Length from the Shore and Two from the Town of Oropeso, 10th of June, 1801, Three in the Morning.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship that, cruising off Barcelona on the 1st Instant, pursuant to Orders from Captain Dixon, of His Majesty's Ship Genereux, and falling in with His Majesty's Ship Speedy, Right Honorable Lord Cochrane, Commander, we spoke a Minorquin Privateer, who gave Information that a Spanish Convoy, consisting of Twelve Sail and Five Armed Vessels, had passed to the Windward Three Days before: Lord Cochrane agreeing with me as to the Practicability of overtaking them, we went in Pursuit, and Yesterday Morning got Sight of them at Anchor under the Battery of Oropeso. When having so able and gallant an Officer as his Lordship to lead into the Bay, I hesitated not a Moment to make the Attack: We approached within Half Gun-Shot of the Enemy by Noon with both Brigs, and came to an Anchor, though opposed by the Battery, which is a large Square Tower, and appears to have Twelve Guns, a Zebec, of Twenty Guns, and Three Gun-Boats, all of which kept up a brisk Fire until Two o'Clock, when it considerably decreased, but again recommenced, encouraged by a Felucca, of Twelve Guns, and Two Gun Boats, that came to their Assistance: by Half past Three the Zebec and One of the Gun-Boats sunk, and shortly after another Gun-Boat shared the same Fate. The Tower, with the remaining Gun-Boats, assisted by the Three in the Offing, continued to annoy us on both Sides till about Half past Six, when the Fire of the Whole slackened; and on the Kangaroo cutting her Cables and running nearer to the Tower, the Gun-Boats in the Offing fled, and by Seven the Tower was silenced. We were annoyed by a heavy Fire of Musquetry in different Directions till Midnight, during which Time the Boats of both Brigs were employed in cutting out the Vessels that were found afloat, under the Direction of Mr. Thomas Foulerton, the First Lieutenant of the Kangaroo, assisted by Lieutenant Warburton, of the Speedy, the Honorable M. A. Cochrane, and Messrs. Dean and Taylor, Midshipmen; they succeeding in bringing out Three Brigs laden with Wine, Rice, and Bread. When Lord Cochrane, with his usual Zeal, took the same Officers under his Command, and went in Shore again in the Hope of bringing away more, but the Remainder were either sunk or driven on Shore. I have here to lament the Loss of Mr. Thomas Taylor, Midshipman, a valuable young Man, who was killed by a Musket Ball while on this Service.

I cannot express myself sufficiently grateful to Lord Cochrane for his Assistance during this long Contest, as well as on the Day before, when we found it necessary, for the Honor of His Britannic Majesty's Arms, to blow up the Tower of Almenara, mounting Two Brads Four-Pounders, which would not surrender, though repeatedly summoned. I must also acknowledge the Services of Lieutenant Foulerton, and beg Leave to recommend him strongly to your Lordship's Notice; he, with the other Lieutenant, Mr. Thomas Brown Thompson, whom I also feel indebted to, has been slightly wounded; Mr. Thomas Tongeau, Acting Master, Mr. John Richards, Purser, (who volunteered his Services on Deck,) on this Occasion, as well as the Officers and Crews of both Brigs, behaved as British Officers and Seamen are accustomed to do; the Assistance of Captain Edward Drummond, of the 60th Regiment, who was a Passenger on board, I also acknowledge with Pleasure.

Enclosed is a List of the Killed and Wounded on board the Kangaroo; Lord Cochrane was a little singed, and received a Bruise at the Demolition of the Tower Almenara, as did Two of his Men, but I am rejoiced to add, neither of them were materially hurt; and with the utmost Surprise I have the Pleasure to find that the Speedy had not a Man killed or wounded in the Destruction of this Convoy, though, from Situation and Distance, equally exposed to the Enemy's Fire: we are now getting under-way for Minorca, with the Prizes; the Sloops are not much damaged, and fortunately for the Enemy the Ammunition of both is expended, otherwise I am confident, that in a short Time the Tower would be razed to its Foundation.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

ON THE BOXES.

TO MERCHANTS, FACTORS, CAPTAINS of SHIPS, &c. &c. &c.

GENTLEMEN.

I HAVE received a great Variety of Applications from Merchants and others concerned in Foreign Trade, complaining of the Difficulty they find in procuring the Genuine Dr. Anderson's Scots Pills; several of your Correspondents abroad have repeatedly sent to my Warehouse, No. 165, Strand, Parts of the printed Bills, to ascertain whether they were authentic.

To avoid these Inconveniences in future, I trouble you with this Letter, for the express Purpose of stating the Two distinct Criteria to ascertain the Genuine Pills from dangerous Counterfeit:

1st. My Name, B. H. Inglis, No. 165, Strand, opposite the New Church, is engraved in, and forms a Part of the Stamp, by Order of the Commissioners.

2d. B. H. Inglis is signed at the Bottom of the printed Bills.

To counterfeit the First is a capital Felony under the Stamp Acts.

The Second is punishable both by Indictment and Action at Law for Damages.

An Attention to either of these Two Cautions must prevent Counterfeits, as I am determined to prosecute to the utmost Rigour all Persons who commit either of these Forgeries. I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient Servant,

B. H. INGLIS.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1801.

Downing-Street, October 21, 1801.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, was this Day received (in Duplicate) at the Office of the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Head-Quarters, Camp before Alexandria, September 5, 1801.

MY LORD,
I Have now the Satisfaction to inform your Lordship, that the Forts and Town of Alexandria have surrendered to His Majesty's Troops, who, on the 2d Instant, took Possession of the entrenched Camp, the Heights above Pompey's Pillar, the Redoubt de Bain, and the Fort Triangular. By the Capitulation the Garrison are to be embarked for France in the Course of Ten Days, provided the Shipping is in a State of Preparation to receive them.

The Operations against the Enemy's Works commenced on the 17th of August.

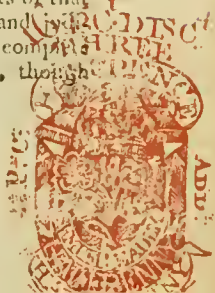

Major-General Coote embarked with a strong Corps on the Inundation in the Night between the 16th and 17th of August. He effected his Landing to the Westward of Alexandria with little or no Opposition, and immediately invested the strong Castle of Marabout, situated at the Entrance of the Western Harbour of Alexandria.

On the East Side of the Town two Attacks were made to get Possession of some Heights in Front of the entrenched Position of the Enemy. I intrusted the Conduct of the Attack against their Right, to Major-General Cradock; and that against their Left to Major-General Moore. Those Two Officers perfectly executed my Intentions, and performed the Service committed to their Care with much Precision and Ability.—The Action was neither oblique or severe, and our Loss is but small; but it afforded One more Opportunity to display the Promptness of British Officers, and the Heroism of British Soldiers. A Part of General Doyle's Brigade, the 30th Regiment, (but under the immediate Command of Colonel Spencer,) had taken Possession of a Hill in Front of the Enemy's Right. General Menou, who was in Person in that Part of the French Intrenched Camp, directly opposite to our Post, ordered about Six Hundred Men to make a Sortie, to drive us from our Position.—The Enemy advanced in Column with fixed Bayonets and without firing a Shot, till they got very close to the 30th Regiment, to whom Colonel Spencer gave an immediate Order to charge, though they did not consist of more than Two Hundred Men; he was obeyed with a Spirit and a Determination worthy the highest Panegyric. The Enemy were driven back to their Intrenchments in the greatest Confusion—they had many killed and wounded, and several taken Prisoners.

On the Night between the 18th and 19th, Major-General Coote opened Batteries against the Castle of Marabout; an Attack was also made from the Sea by several Turkish Corvettes, and the Launches and Boats of the Fleet, under the Guidance of the Honorable Captain Cochrane; great Perseverance and Exertions were required to get up heavy Guns through a difficult and almost impracticable Country; but the Troops executed this painful and arduous Service with such Zeal and continued Firmness, that the Fort capitulated in the Night of the 21st; the Garrison consisted of about One Hundred and Eighty Men, and were commanded by a Chef de Brigade.

On the Morning of the 22d, Major-General Coote marched from Marabout to attack a strong Corps posted in his Front, in order to cover the Approach to Alexandria; the Managements of that excellent Officer appear to have been able and successful, and were attended with the most complete Success; he drove the Enemy every where, though strongly posted, and in a Country which opposed uncommon Obstacles to the Progress of Troops. The French suffered extremely in the Action, and retreated in much Confusion, leaving their Wounded and Seven Pieces of Cannon behind them.

On the 24th, Batteries were opened against the Reboubt de Bain; and on the 25th, at Night, Major-General Coote surprised the Enemy's Advanced Posts, when Seven Officers and Fifty Men were taken Prisoners; this Service was gallantly performed by Lieutenant-Colonel Smith, with the 1st Battalion of the 20th Regiment, and a small Detachment of Dragoons under the Orders of Lieutenant Kelly, of the 26th. The Enemy endeavoured to regain Possession of the Ground from which they had been driven, but were repulsed with Loss.

On the Morning of the 26th we opened Four Batteries on each Side of the Town against the intrenched Camp of the French, which soon silenced their Fire, and induced them to withdraw many of their Guns.

On the 27th, in the Evening, General Menou sent an Aid-de-Camp to request an Armistice for Three Days, in order to give Time to prepare a Capitulation, which, after some Difficulties and Delays, was signed on the 2d of September.

I have the Honor to enclose you a Copy of the Capitulation, and also a List of the Number of Persons for whom the Enemy have required Shipping; by this it appears, that the Total of the Garrison of Alexandria consisted of upwards of Eight Thousand Soldiers, and One Thousand Three Hundred Sailors.

This arduous and important Service has at length been brought to a Conclusion. The Exertions of Individuals have been splendid and meritorious. I regret that the Bounds of a Dispatch will not allow me to specify the Whole, or to mention the Name of every Person who has distinguished himself in the public Service. I have received the greatest Support and Assistance from the General Officers of the Army. The Conduct of the Troops of every Description has been exemplary in the highest Degree; there has been much to applaud and nothing to reprehend; their Order and Regularity in the Camp have been as conspicuous as their Courage in the Field. To the Quarter-Master General Lieutenant-Colonel Austruther I owe much for his unwearied Industry and Zeal in the public Service, and for the Aid, Advice, and Co-operation, which he has at all Times afforded me. Brigadier-General Lawson, who commanded the Artillery, and Captain Bryce, the Chief Engineer, have both great Merit in their different Departments. The local Situation of Egypt presents Obstacles of a most serious Kind to military Operations on an extended Scale. The Skill and Perseverance of those Two Officers have overcome Difficulties which at first appeared almost insurmountable.

Lieutenant-Colonel Lindenthal, who has always acted with the Turks, deserves my utmost Acknowledgments; his Activity and Diligence have been unremitted, and he has introduced amongst them an Order and Regularity which does him the highest Honor.

During the Course of the long Service on which we have been engaged, Lord Keith has, at all Times, given me the most able Assistance and Counsel. The Labour and Fatigue of the Navy have been continued and excessive;—it have not been of One Day or of One Week, but for Months together. In the Bay of Aboukir, on the New Inundation, and on the Nile, for One Hundred and Sixty Miles, they have been employed without Intermission, and have submitted to many Privations with a Cheerfulness and Patience highly creditable to them, and advantageous to the public Service!

Sir Sidney Smith had originally the Command of the Seamen who landed from the Fleet; he continued on Shore till after the Capture of Rosetta, and returned on board the Tigre a short Time before the Appearance of Admiral Gantheaume's Squadron on the Coast. He was present in the Three Actions of the 8th, 13th, and 21st of March, when he displayed that Ardour of Mind for the Service of his Country, and that noble Intrepidity for which he has been ever so conspicuous. Captain Stevenson, of the Europa, succeeded him, and I have every Reason to be satisfied with his Zeal and Conduct. The Crews of the Gun-Boats displayed great Gallantry, under his Guidance, in the New Inundation; and much Approbation is also due to the Naval Officers who acted under his Orders.

Captain Prefsland of the Regulus has had the Direction for many Months past of all Greek Ships in our Employment, and of those belonging to the Commissariat. He has been active, zealous, and indefatigable, and merits my warmest Approbation. I must therefore beg Leave particularly to recommend this old and meritorious Officer to your Lordship's Protection.

Allow me to express an humble Hope, that the Army in Egypt have gratified the warmest Wishes and Expectations of their Country. To them every Thing is due, and to me nothing. It was my Fate to succeed a Man who created such a Spirit and established such a Discipline amongst them, that little has been left for me to perform, except to follow his Maxims, and to endeavour to imitate his Conduct.

This Dispatch will be delivered to your Lordship by Colonel Abercromby, an Officer of considerable Ability, and worthy of the great Name which he bears. He will one Day, I trust, emulate the Virtue and Talents of his never sufficiently to be lamented Father.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

J. HELY HUTCHINSON, Lieutenant-General.

*The Right Honorable Lord Hobart,
&c. &c. &c.*

ARTICLES of the CAPITULATION proposed by Abdoullahy Jacques Francois Menou, General in Chief of the French Army now in Alexandria, to the Generals commanding the Land and Sea Forces of His Britannic Majesty, and of the Sublime Porte, forming the Blockade of Alexandria, dated the 12th Fructidor, Year Nine of the French Republic (30th August 1801).

Art. I. From the present Date to the 30th Fructidor, (17th September 1801,) there shall be a Continuation of the Truce and Suspension of Arms between the French Army and the Combined Armies of His Britannic Majesty and of the Sublime Porte, upon the same Conditions with those which actually subsist, with the Exception of a Regulation, to be amicably settled between the respective Generals of the Two Armies, for establishing a new Line of Advanced Posts, in order to remove all Pretext of Hostility between the Troops.

Answer.—Refused.

Art. II. In case no adequate Succours should arrive to the French Army before the Day mentioned in the preceding Article, that Army shall evacuate the Forts and entrenched Camps of Alexandria upon the following Conditions.

Answer.—Refused.

Art. III. The French Army shall retire, on the first Complementary Day of the French Era, into the City of Alexandria and Forts adjacent, and shall deliver up to the Allied Powers the entrenched Camp in Front of the Lines of the Arabs, the Fort Le Turc, and the Fort Du Vivier, together with their Artillery and Ammunition.

Answer.—In Forty-eight Hours after the signing of the Capitulation, namely, on the 2d September, at Noon, the entrenched Camps, the Fort Turc, and that of Du Vivier, shall be delivered up to the Allied Powers. The Ammunition and Artillery of these Forts shall be also delivered up. The French Troops shall evacuate the City, Forts, and Dependencies of Alexandria Ten Days after signing the Capitulation, or at the Time of their Embarkation.

Art. IV. All Individuals, constituting a Part of the French Army, or attached to it by any Relations, Military or Civil; the Auxiliary Troops of every Nation, Country, or Religion, or of whatever Powers they might have been Subjects before the Arrival of the French, shall preserve their Property, of every Description, their Effects, Papers, &c. &c.; which shall not be subject to any Examination.

Answer.—Granted; provided that nothing be carried away belonging to the Government of the French Republic, but only the Effects, Baggage, and other Articles belonging to the French and Auxiliary Soldiers, who have served during Six Months in the Army of the Republic; the same is to be underload of all the Individuals attached to the French Army, by Civil or Military Capacities, of whatever Nation, Country, or Religion they may be.

Art. V. The French Forces, the Auxiliary Troops, and all the Individuals described in the preceding Article, shall be embarked in the Ports of Alexandria, between the 5th and the 10th of Vendémiaire, Year Ten of the Republic, at the latest, (27th September to the 3d October 1801,) together with their Arms, Stores, Baggage, Effects, and Property of all Kinds, Official Papers, and Deposits, One Field-Piece to each Battalion and Squadron, with Ammunition, &c. &c. the Whole to be conveyed to one of the Ports of the French Republic in the Mediterranean, to be determined by the General in Chief of the French Army.

Answer.—The French Forces, the Auxiliary Troops and all the Individuals described in the 4th Article shall be embarked in the Ports of Alexandria, (unless, after an amicable Convention, it should be found more expeditious to embark a Part of them at Aboukir,) as soon as Vessels can be prepared, the Allied Powers at the same Time engaging that the Embarkation shall take place, if possible; Ten Days after the Capitulation shall be signed; they shall receive all the Honours of War, shall carry away their Arms and Baggage, shall not be Prisoners of War, and shall moreover take with them Ten Pieces of Cannon from Four to Eight-Pounders, with Ten Rounds of Shot to each Gun; they shall be conveyed to a French Port in the Mediterranean.

Art. VI. The French Ships of War, with their full Complement, and all Merchant Ships, to whatever Nation or Individuals they may belong, even those of Nations at War with the Allied Powers, or those that are the Property of Owners or Merchants who were subject to the Allied Powers before the Arrival of the French, shall depart with the French Army, in order that those that are Ships of War may be restored to the French Government, and the Merchant Ships to the Owners, or to their Assignees.

Answer.—Refused. All Vessels shall be delivered up as they are.

Art. VII. Every single Ship that, from the present Day to the 30th Fructidor, shall arrive from the French Republic, or any of her Allies, into the Ports or Road of Alexandria, shall be comprehended in this Capitulation. Every Ship of War or Commerce, belonging to France, or the Allies of the Republic, that shall arrive in the Ports or Road of Alexandria, within the Twenty Days immediately following the Evacuation of that Place, shall not be considered a lawful Prize, but shall be set at Liberty, with her Equipage and Cargo, and be furnished with a Passport from the Allied Powers.

Answer.—Refused.

Art. VIII. The French and Auxiliary Troops, the Civil and Military Agents attached to the Army, and all other Individuals described in the preceding Articles, shall be embarked on board such French and other Vessels, actually in the Ports of Alexandria, as shall be in a Condition to go to Sea; or on board those of His Britannic Majesty and of the Sublime Port, within the Time fixed by the Fifth Art.

Art. IX. Commissaries shall be named by each Party to regulate the Number of Vessels to be employed, the Number of Men to be embarked upon them, and generally to provide for all the Difficulties that may arise in carrying into Execution the present Capitulation.

Those Commissaries shall agree upon the different Positions which shall be taken by the Ships now in the Port of Alexandria, and those which shall be furnished by the Allied Powers, so that by a well-regulated Arrangement, every Occasion of Difference between the Crews of the several Nations may be avoided.

Answer.—All these Details will be regulated by the English Admiral, and by an Officer of the French Navy named by the General in Chief.

Art. X. Merchants and Owners of Ships, of whatever Nation or Religion they may be, and also the Inhabitants of Egypt, and of every other Country, who may at the present Time be in Alexandria, whether Syrians, Copts, Greeks, Arabs, Jews, &c. and who shall be desirous of following the French Army, shall be embarked with and enjoy the same Advantages with that Army; they shall be at Liberty to remove their Property of all Kinds, and to leave Powers for the Disposal of what they may not be able to take away. All Arrangements, all Sales, all Stipulations, whether of Commerce, or of any other Nature made by them, shall be strictly carried into Effect after their Departure, and be maintained by the Generals of His Britannic Majesty and of the Sublime Porte. Those who may prefer remaining in Egypt a certain Time on Account of their private Affairs shall be at Liberty to do so, and shall have full Protection from the Allied Powers; those also who may be desirous of establishing themselves in Egypt shall be entitled to all the Privileges and Rights of which they were in Possession before the Arrival of the French.

Answer.—Every Article of Merchandize, whether in the Town of Alexandria, or on Board the Vessels that are in the Ports, shall be provisionally at the Disposition of the Allied Powers, but subject to such definitive Regulation as may be determined by established Usage and the Law of Nations. Private Merchants shall be at Liberty to accompany the French Army, or they may remain in the Country in Security.

Art. XI. None of the Inhabitants of Egypt, or of any other Nation or Religion, shall be called to account for their Conduct during the Period of the French Troops having been in the Country; particularly for having taken Arms in their Favor, or having been employed by them.

Answer.—Granted.

Art. XII. The Troops, and all others who may be embarked with them, shall be fed during their Passage, and until their Arrival in France, at the Expence of the Allied Powers, and conformably to the Rules of the French Navy. The Allied Powers shall supply every Thing that may be necessary for the Embarkation.

Answer.—The Troops, and all others who may be embarked with them, shall be fed during their Passage, and until their Arrival in France, at the Expence of the Allied Powers, according to the Usage established in the Marine of England.

Art. XIII. The Consuls, and all other public Agents of the several Powers in Alliance with the French Republic, shall continue in the Enjoyment of all the Privileges and Rights which are granted by civilized Nations to Diplomatic Agents: Their Property, all their Effects and Papers shall be respected and placed under the Protection of the Allied Powers. They shall be at Liberty to retire or to remain as they may think fit.

Answer.—The Consuls and all other public Agents of the Powers in Alliance with the French Republic, shall be at Liberty to remain or to retire as they may judge fit. Their Property and Effects of any Kind, together with their Papers, shall be preserved for them, provided they conduct themselves with Loyalty, and conformably to the Law of Nations.

Art. XIV. The Sick who may be judged by the Medical Staff of the Army to be in a State for Removal shall be embarked at the same Time with the Army, upon Hospital Ships properly furnished with Medicines, Provisions, and every other Store that may be necessary for their Situation; and they shall be attended by French Surgeons. Those of the Sick who may not be in a Condition to undertake the Voyage shall be delivered over to the Care and Humanity of the Allied Powers. French Physicians and other Medical Assistance shall be left for their Care, to be maintained at the Expence of the Allied Powers, who shall send them to France as soon as their State of Health may permit, together with any Thing belonging to them, in the same Manner as has been proposed for the Rest of the Army.

Answer.—Granted. The Ships destined for Hospitals shall be prepared for the Reception of those who may fall Sick during the Passage. The Medical Staff of the Two Armies shall concert together in what Manner to dispose of those of the Sick who, having contagious Disorders, ought not to have Communication with the others.

Art. XV. Horse Transports for conveying Sixty Horses, with every Thing necessary for their Subsistence during the Passage, shall be furnished.

Answer.—Granted.

Art. XVI. The Individuals composing the Institute of Egypt and the Commission of Arts, shall carry with them all the Papers, Plans, Memoirs, Collections of Natural History, and all the Monuments of Art and Antiquity collected by them in Egypt.

Answer.—The Members of the Institute may carry with them all the Instruments of Arts and Science which they have brought from France, but the Arabian Manuscripts, the Statues, and other Collections which have been made for the French Republic, shall be considered as public Property, and subject to the Disposal of the Generals of the Combined Army.

General Hope having declared, in consequence of some Observations of the Commander in Chief of the French Army, that he could make no Alteration in this Article, it has been agreed that a Reference thereupon should be made to the Commander in Chief of the Combined Army.

Art. XVII. The Vessels which shall be employed in conveying the French and Auxiliary Army, as well as the different Persons who shall accompany it, shall be escorted by Ships of War belonging to the Allied Powers, who formally engage that they shall not, in any Manner be molested during their Voyage; the Safety of such of these Vessels as may be separated by Strefs of Weather, or other Accidents shall be guaranteed by the Generals of the Allied Forces; the Vessels conveying the French Army shall not, under any Pretence, touch at any other than the French Coast, except in case of absolute Necessity.

Answer.—Granted.

Art. XIX. Commissaries shall be named to receive the Artillery of the Place and of the Forts, Stores, Magazines, Plans, and other Articles that the French leave to the Allied Powers, and Lists and Inventories shall be made out, signed by the Commissaries of the different Powers, according as the Forts and Magazines shall be given up to the Allied Powers.

Answer.—Granted. Provided that all the Plans of the City and Forts of Alexandria, as well as all Maps of the Country, shall be delivered up to the English Commissary. The Batteries, Cisterns, and other public Buildings, shall also be given up in the Condition in which they actually are.

Art. XX. A Passport shall be granted to a French armed Vessel, in order to convey to Toukh, immediately after the Camps and Forts before mentioned shall be given up, Officers charged by the Commander in Chief to carry to his Government the present Capitulation.

Answer.—Granted. But if it is a French Vessel, it shall not be armed.

Art. XXI. On giving up the Camps and Forts mentioned in the preceding Articles, Hostages shall be given on both Sides, in order to guarantee the Execution of the present Treaty. They shall be chosen from among the Officers of Rank in the respective Armies; namely, Four from the French Army, Two from the British Troops, and Two from the Troops of the Sublime Porte. The Four French Hostages shall be embarked on board the English Ship commanding the Squadron, and the Four British and Turkish Hostages on board One of the Vessels which shall carry the Commander in Chief, or the Lieutenant-Generals. They shall all be reciprocally delivered up on their Arrival in France.

Answer.—There shall be placed in the Hands of the Commander in Chief of the French Army Four Officers of Rank as Hostages, namely, One Officer of the Navy, One Officer of the British Army, and Two Officers of the Turkish Army. The Commander in Chief shall, in like Manner, place in the Hands of the Commander in Chief of the British Army Four Officers of Rank. The Hostages shall be restored on both Sides at the Period of the Embarkation.

Art. XXII. If any Difficulties should arise during the Execution of the present Capitulation, they shall be amicably settled by the Commissaries of the Armies.

Answer.—Granted.

Camp, West of Alexandria, August 23d, 1801.

SIR,
CAPTAIN COCHRANE, with Seven Sloops of War, having entered into the Western Harbour of Alexandria on the Evening of the 21st Instant, and anchored on my Left Flank, I immediately determined to move forward, and take as advanced a Position near the Town of Alexandria as Prudence and Security would permit.

The necessary Arrangements having been made in the Morning of the 22d, the Troops advanced against the Enemy, who was strongly posted upon a Ridge of high Hills, having his Right Flank secured by Two heavy Guns, and his Left by Two Batteries containing Three more, with many Field-Pieces placed in the Intervals of his Line.

The Army moved through the Sand-Hills in Three Columns, the Guards forming Two upon the Right near the Lake, and Major-General Ludlow's Brigade the Third upon the Left, having the 1st Battalion of the 27th Regiment in advance: Major-General Finch's Brigade composed a Reserve, and was destined to give its Support wherever it might be required.

In this Manner, having our Field Artillery with the Advanced Guard, the Troops continued to move forward with the greatest Coolness and Regularity, under a very heavy Fire of Cannon and Small Arms, forcing the Enemy to retreat constantly before them, and driving them to their present Position within the Walls of Alexandria.

Major-Generals Ludlow, Earl of Cavan, and Finch, upon this, as upon all other Occasions, have given me all possible Support, and deserve every Commendation for the Precision and Regularity with which they led on their respective Columns.

The Exertions of the Captains commanding the Ships of War upon our Left, and of the Officers commanding the Gun-Boats upon our Right, were attended with the best Effect; their continued and unremitting Fire kept the Enemy in Check.

To Captain Cochrane I feel extremely obliged, for his Zeal and constant Readiness to afford every Assistance in his Power. Captain Stevenson, who commanded the Gun-Boats upon the Lake, also calls for my earnest Approbation of his Conduct.

Permit me, Sir, to repeat to you the intrepid and gallant Behaviour of the Whole of the Troops during the Affair of Yesterday, which lasted from Six until Ten o'Clock in the Morning. Their Bravery was only equalled by the cool and regular Manner in which they advanced under a severe and heavy Cannonade. Happy am I to add that our Loss is only trifling, when compared to the Advantages we have gained, and the Difficulties we had to surmount in a Country, which, at every step, afforded the Enemy the Means of making the most desperate Resistance.

The Loss of the Enemy must have been considerably greater than ours. It is impossible for me to ascertain the Numbers. Seven Pieces of heavy Ordnance were left behind by the French in the Hurry of their Retreat, and have fallen into our Hands.

I feel much indebted to Lieutenant-Colonel Duncan, Quartermaster-General, for his judicious Arrangements, and for his Conduct during the whole of Yesterday; he deserves my sincere Thanks.

Enclosed I have the Honor to transmit a Return of the Killed and Wounded, &c.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

*Camp, West of Alexandria,

SIR,
I Have the Honor to enclose the Summons, as also the Articles of Capitulation of the Fort of Marabout.

The speedy and fortunate Reduction of that Post, so important to our Fleets, was, I am happy to say, effected without any Loss on our Side, and calls upon me to lay before you the unremitting Zeal and Attention of Lieutenant-Colonel Darby, who, with the 1st Battalion of the 54th Regiment, covered the Attack; the very judicious Manner in which he posted the Light Company of that Corps, who, by being placed on an adjoining Rock, silenced the Guns by their Musketry, greatly accelerated the Fall of the Fort.

I also feel myself indebted for the effectual Exertions of Major Cookson, of the Royal Artillery, and for the prompt Arrangements of Captain Ford, the commanding Engineer.

I beg to transmit a Return of the Prisoners taken, as also the Ordnance and Stores found in the Fort.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

*Camp, West of Alexandria,
August 26, 1801.*

SIR,
BEING anxious to push my Picquets upon the Left as far as possible towards the Enemy's Advanced Work, the Redout de Bain, I directed Lieutenant-Colonel Smith, with the 1st Battalion of the 20th Regiment, assisted with a small Detachment of the 26th Light Dragoons, commanded by Lieutenant Kelly, to attack and drive in the French Outposts upon the Right of their Position. He was to be supported by a Battalion of Infantry, disposed for that Purpose on the Sand Hills.

Soon after Dark last Night, Lieutenant-Colonel Smith commenced the Attack by turning the Left of the Enemy's Picquets, and scouring the Hills as he advanced.

The cool and spirited Conduct of that Officer and the Corps under his Command, as also the Detachment of the 26th Dragoons, is well deserving of Praise; not a man attempted to load, and the Whole was effected by the Bayonet. The Loss of the Enemy in this Affair amounted to upwards of One Hundred Men killed, wounded, and taken; of the latter I enclose the Return.

This Service was performed on our Side with the Loss of only Three Men slightly wounded; and has placed me in a Situation to erect a Battery within about Six Hundred Yards of Redoubt de Bain.

The Enemy, however, extremely exasperated at our Success, made several Attempts to regain the Ground he had lost; with this View he kept up a very heavy Fire of Cannon and Musquetry for about an Hour; when, finding all his Endeavours ineffectual, he retired leaving us peaceful Possessors of the Advantage we had gained in the early Part of the Night.

Enclosed is a Return of our Loss in the latter Part of the Affair.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Extract of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Sir John Thomas Duckworth, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Martinique, the 21st of August 1801.

I Proceeded to this Anchorage, where I found the Guachapin had arrived the previous Day, with a Spanish Letter of Marque, which she had captured, after a severe Conflict of more than Two Hours. For the Particulars of this gallant Action I shall refer their Lordships to the accompanying Letter from Captain Bland, of L'Heureux; too great Praise cannot be given to Captain Butcher, his Officers, and Crew.

His Majesty's Ship L'Heureux, off Martinique, 17th August 1801.

SIR,

HAVING left Cafe Navirre Yesterday in the Afternoon, to follow the Orders received from you, the next Morning at Daylight, between Martinique and St. Lucia, we saw His Majesty's Brig Guachapin commencing an Action with a Spanish Ship of War; to the unequal Contest we made all Haste; but before we could get up to give a Broadside, the Spanish Letter of Marque La Teresa, commanded by an Officer belonging to the Spanish Navy, mounting Eighteen Brass Guns of Thirty-two and Twelve-Pounders and One Hundred and Twenty Men, struck to her gallant Opponent.

I am sorry to add, the Guachapin had Three Men killed and Three wounded; the Ship nearly the same. Captain Butcher mentions the able Assistance he received from his Lieutenant, Mr. Marshall, in the strongest Terms.

Westminster, October 29, 1801.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech :

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have the Satisfaction to acquaint you, that the important Negotiations, in which I was engaged at the Close of the last Session of Parliament, are brought to a favourable Conclusion. The Differences with the Northern Powers have been adjusted by a Convention with the Emperor of Russia, to which the Kings of Denmark and Sweden have expressed their Readiness to accede. The essential Rights for which We contended are thereby secured, and Provision is made that the Exercise of them shall be attended with as little Molestation as possible to the Subjects of the contracting Parties.

Preliminaries of Peace have also been ratified between Me and the French Republic; and I trust that this important Arrangement, whilst it manifests the Justice and Moderation of My Views, will also be found conducive to the substantial Interests of this Country, and honorable to the British Character :—Copies of these Papers shall forthwith be laid before you; and I earnestly hope that the Transactions to which they refer will meet with the Approbation of My Parliament.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I have directed such Estimates to be prepared of the various Demands for the public Service as appear to Me to be best adapted to the Situation in which We are now placed. It is painful to Me to reflect that Provision cannot be made for defraying the Expences which must unavoidably be continued, for a Time, in different Parts of the World, and for maintaining an adequate Peace Establishment, without large additional Supplies. You may, however, be assured that all possible Attention shall be paid to such æconomical Arrangements as may not be inconsistent with the great Object of effectually providing for the Security of all My Dominions.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I cannot sufficiently describe the Gratification and Comfort I derive from the Relief, which the Bounty of Divine Providence has afforded to My People, by the abundant Produce of the late Harvest :—In contemplating the Situation of the Country at this important Conjunction, it is impossible for Me to refrain from expressing the deep Sense I entertain of the Temper and Fortitude which have been manifested by all Descriptions of My faithful Subjects, under the various and complicated Difficulties with which they have had to contend.

The distinguished Valour and eminent Services of My Forces by Sea and Land, which, at no Period, have been surpassed; the unprecedented Exertions of the Militia and Fencibles; and the Zeal and Perseverance of the Yeomanry and Volunteer Corps of Cavalry and Infantry, are entitled to My warmest Acknowledgments; and I am persuaded, that you will join with Me in reflecting, with peculiar Satisfaction, on the Naval and Military Operations of the last Campaign; and on the successful and glorious Issue of the Expedition to Egypt, which has been marked throughout by Achievements, tending, in their Consequences and by their Example, to produce lasting Advantage and Honor to this Country.

It is My first Wish, and most fervent Prayer, that My People may experience the Reward they have so well merited, in a full Enjoyment of the Blessings of Peace, in a progressive Increase of the National Commerce, Credit, and Resources; and, above all, in the undisturbed Possession of their Religion, Laws, and Liberties, under the Safeguard and Protection of that Constitution, which it has been the great Object of all Our Efforts to preserve, and which it is Our most sacred Duty to transmit, unimpaired, to Our Descendants.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament of the 26th & George II. this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been received at this Office, that the Ship Elther, William Dale, Master, bound from Archangel to Hull, with a Cargo of Tar, Pitch, and Linseed, is on Shore on the Sand Hale, in the County of Lincoln. EVAN NEPEAN.

Whitehall, October 27, 1801.

WHEREAS it hath been represented to His Majesty by the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that on the 19th of June last, several Persons, composing a Boat's Crew, belonging to His Majesty's Gun-Vessel the Hecate, who had boarded and taken Possession of a Smuggling Luggar laden with Spirits, which had been run ashore at a Place called Mullians, in Mount's-Bay, on the Coast of Cornwall, were attacked by a large Party of Men carrying Muskets, &c., advancing to a Cliff at a small Distance from the Lugger, began firing upon them, and continued such firing for a considerable Time, until the said Persons were under the Necessity, for the Safety of their Lives, to quit the Lugger and take to their Boat; after which they were again fired upon by the said armed Men, and, in particular, by one William Richards, otherwise called Payow, (supposed to be a Part-Owner of the said Lugger or her Cargo,) who has since absconded;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Offenders, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One or more of them, (other than the said Richards alias Payow) who shall discover his or their Accomplices therein, so that any of them may be apprehended and convicted of the malicious and atrocious and abovementioned.

PELLHAM.

And the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons (except the said Richards alias Payow,) who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended any of the said Offenders, or give such Information to their Lordships' Solicitor Mr. Bicknell, of Norfolk-Street, London, or Messrs. George and Samuel John, of Penzance, as may be the Means of their Apprehension, to be paid on the Conviction of any such Offenders so apprehended, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy for the Time being.

N. B. The said Richards alias Payow, is about Fifty-two Years of Age, Five Feet Seven Inches high, stout made, dark Hair straight and short, dark Complexion, dark Grey full Eyes, with reddish Eyelashes and Eyebrows, his Beard also red, and remarkably thick and large, large Mouth, and Teeth discoloured, Voice sharp and shrill.

Whitehall, November 7, 1801.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Night of Thursday the 22d Ultimo, a Banditti, supposed to consist of above One Hundred and Fifty Persons, came to Boscarne, in the Parish of Bodmin, in the County of Cornwall, some of whom surrounded the Dwelling-House armed with Guns, and about Twelve concealed themselves in an Outhouse with an Intention, it is supposed, to murder the Miller and his Men if they gave the Alarm, they proceeded to demolish the Salmon-Wear and Head-Weir, (the Rocks that prevent the Fish from going up the River,) exulting in the Depredations they had made by huzzaing, firing of Guns, &c.;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Felony abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Persons who actually demolished the said Wear,) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PELHAM.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby promised to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted,) to be paid on the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders, by

The Reverend Dr. Flamanck, of Bodmin.

THE Names of those who were nominated for Sheriffs by the Council of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, at His Royal Highness's Council-Chamber and Dutchy-Office, Somerset-Place, on Thursday the 12th Day of November, in the Forty-second Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and in the Year of our Lord 1801;

Downing-Street, November 14, 1801.

DISPATCHES (in Duplicate), of which the following are a Copy and Extract, have been received at the Office of the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, brought by Colonel Abercromby, from Lieutenant-General the Honorable Sir John Hely
Hutchinson, K. B. commanding His Majesty's Troops serving in Egypt.

Head Quarters, Camp before Alexandria,
MY LORD, 19th August 1801.

THE last Division of the French Troops who surrendered at Cairo sailed from the Bay of Aboukir a few Days ago. There have been embarked in all near Thirteen Thousand Five Hundred Persons. The Garrison of Cairo consisted of about Eight Thousand Troops of all Descriptions, fit for Duty, not including One Thousand Sick, and a considerable Number of Invalids. The Total amounts to near Ten Thousand Soldiers; amongst whom there was a very small Proportion of Greeks and Copts, not more than Four or Five Hundred Men:

the Remainder were all French. The other Persons embarked were Followers of the Army, and attached to it in various civil Capacities.

Major-General Cradock having been confined at Cairo by Illness, I entrusted the Command of the Troops to Major-General Moore, who, during a long March of a very novel and critical Nature, displayed much Judgment, and conducted himself in the most able and judicious Manner. Notwithstanding the Mixture of Turks, British, and French, the utmost Regularity was preserved, and no one disagreeable Circumstance ever took place. My Presence at Cairo was rendered indispensably necessary, by some Arrangements which I was obliged to make with His Highness the Grand Vizier.

Major-General Baird, after having struggled through many Difficulties in passing the Desert, and from Want of Boats to descend the Nile, has at length arrived at Cairo with the greatest Part of the Troops under his Command, and I imagine he will reach Rosetta in the course of a few Days: he has been directed to detach a certain Number of Troops to Damietta, and to leave a Garrison at Giza.

We Two Days ago commenced our Operations against Alexandria; as yet no Event of any Consequence has taken place; we have lost a few Men, and taken a few Prisoners.

Major-General Coote has been detached with a considerable Corps to the Westward, in order to invest the Town completely on that Side, and to cut off the Communication of the Enemy with the Arabs, who have been in the Habit of supplying them with small Quantities of Cattle and other Kinds of Fresh Provisions. General Coote's first Operation will be directed against Marabout, a Castle on an Island at the Entrance of the old Harbour of Alexandria.

I cannot conclude this Letter without stating to your Lordship the many Obligations I have to Lord Keith and the Navy, for the great Exertions they have used in forwarding to us the necessary Supplies, and from the Fatigue they have undergone in the late Embarkation of a considerable Number of Troops and Stores, who were embarked on the new Lake, and proceeded to the Westward, under the Orders of Major-General Coote.

The utmost Dispatch has also been used in sending the French Troops, lately captured, to France; which, in our present Position, was a Service of the most essential Consequence.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) J. HELY HUTCHINSON, Lieutenant-General.

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant-General the Honorable Sir John Hely Hutchinson, K. B. to the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, dated Head-Quarters, Camp before Alexandria, 19th August 1801.

I Was honored with your Lordship's Dispatches of the 19th May, at Cairo, where I remained to settle some essential Business with His Highness the Grand Vizier, on the Subject of the Mamalukes; I have put their Affairs in a Train of Negotiation, and hope to bring them to a fortunate Issue.

The Siege of Alexandria will probably be attended with many Difficulties; the Works towards the East Side, where we are encamped, are prodigiously strong, and can hardly be approached on Account of the Narrowness of the Space between the Lake and the Sea, and the Nature of the Ground towards the West, the Works are not so strong, but however the Difficulties in approaching them are also numerous; the Corps there is completely in the Desert, the Communication with us (by whom they must be supplied with every Thing,) is tedious, and the Boats employed have a most severe Duty to perform; General Coote has, however, been so fortunate as to find Water: on the Whole, I cannot flatter myself that Alexandria will be in our Possession in a short Time, unless some Event takes place, of which we are not at present aware.

The Reinforcements from England, Minorca, and Malta, are all arrived, except the 48th Regiment from the latter Place; they are very fine Troops, and in a perfect State of Health, Order, and Discipline.

Admiralty-Office, November 14, 1801.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Foulroyant, Bay of Aboukir, September 2, 1801.

SIR,

I Have the Honor and Satisfaction of acquainting you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that the important Object of this Expedition is fully accomplished; a Capitulation (of which a Copy is inclosed) has been this Day signed, providing for the Delivery to the Allies, To-morrow, of the Enemy's entrenched Camp on the Eastern Side of Alexandria, and the Fort Triangulaire, and other important Posts on the Western Side; and for that of the Town itself, the Public Effects, and the Shipping in the Harbour, at the Expiration of Ten Days, or sooner if the Enemy's Troops can be sooner embarked; as soon as I can obtain Returns of the Ships and Effects they shall be transmitted to you. The Merchant Vessels are very numerous, and One old Venetian Ship of the Line, with the French Frigates Egyptienne, Justice, and Regenerée, and some Corvettes, are known to be in the Port.

Their Lordships will not fail to have observed from my former Details, the meritorious Conduct of the Officers and Men who have been from Time to Time employed on the various Duties which the Debarkation of the Army and a Co-operation with them has required. Though Opportunities for brilliant Exertion have been few since the 8th of March, the Desire for participating in it has been unremitted. But the Nature of this Expedition has demanded from most of the Officers and Seamen of the Fleet, and particularly from those of the Troop Ships, Bomb Vessels, and Transports, the Endurance of Labour, Fatigue, and Privation far beyond what I have witnessed before, and which I verily believe to have exceeded all former Example; and it has been encountered and surmounted with a Degree of Resolution and Perseverance which merits my highest Praise, and gives both Officers and Men a just Claim to the Protection of their Lordships, and the Approbation of their Country. The Number of Officers to whom I owe this Tribute of Approbation, does not admit of my mentioning them by Name, but most of the Captains of the Troop Ships have been employed in the Superintendence of these Duties, and I have had repeated and urgent Offers of voluntary Service from all. The Agents for Transports have conducted themselves with laudable Diligence and Activity in the Service of the several Departments to which they are attached, and displayed the greatest Exertion and Ability in overcoming the numerous Difficulties with which they had to contend.

The Captains and Commanders of the Ships appointed for guarding the Port, have executed that tedious and anxious Duty with Diligence and Success; during my Absence from the Squadron the Blockade has been conducted much to my Satisfaction by Rear-Admiral Sir R. Bickerton; and Justice requires me to mention, that when I was with the Squadron Captain Wilson of the Trusty was unwearied in his Attention to the Direction of all the Duties in this Bay.

The Capitan Pacha has uniformly manifested the most anxious Desire of contributing, by every Means in his Power, to the Promotion of the Service. Having been generally on Shore with his Troops, the Ships have been submitted, by his Orders, to my Direction, and the Officers have paid the most respectful Attention to the Instructions they have received from me.

Captain Sir Sydney Smith, who has served with such distinguished Reputation in this Country, having applied to be the Bearer of the Dispatches announcing the Expulsion of the Enemy, I have complied with his Request; and I beg to refer their Lordships to that active and intelligent Officer for any particular Information relative to this or other Parts of the Country, on which he has had Opportunities of making Remarks.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

SIR,

YOU will be pleased to acquaint their Lordships that the Capitan Pacha and I have agreed on the enclosed Distribution of the Vessels of War found in the Enemy's Possession in Alexandria, of which I trust their Lordships will approve.

I have, &c. KEITH.

SIR,

I Have the Honor and Satisfaction of transmitting to you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Copy of a Letter received by me from Rear-Admiral Sir John Warren, inclosing one from Captain Halsted, of His Majesty's Ship the Phoenix, reporting the Capture of One of the Enemy's Frigates.

I am, &c. KEITH.

MY LORD, Renown, Mahon, Aug. 13, 1801.

I Have inclosed to your Lordship the Copy of a Letter I received from Captain Halsted of His Majesty's Ship Phoenix, giving me an Account of the Capture of La Carriere French Frigate, by Captain Gower in His Majesty's Ship La Pomone, on the 3d Instant, with a List of the Killed and Wounded in the latter Ship.

Captain Gower speaks very highly of the Conduct of the Officers and Crew of La Pomone; and I beg leave to recommend to your Consideration Lieutenant Lloyd, first of that Ship, as a very deserving Officer.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

SIR, Phoenix, off Elba, 3d August 1801.

I Beg Leave to inform you, that at Half past Two P. M. a Frigate and several small Vessels were seen to the Southward of the Piombino Passage, steering for Port Longone. The Squadron under my Command went in Chace of them immediately, and I have great Pleasure in acquainting you, that at Ten Minutes past Eight, after several Shot being fired from Bow and Stern Chasers, Captain Gower of the Pomone, in a very gallant and officer-like Manner, ran alongside the Frigate, and after Ten Minutes Resistance, she surrendered: she is La Carriere French Frigate from Port Hercule, with Ammunition for Longone, mounting Twenty-six Eighteen Pounders, with Two spare Ports on her Main Deck, and Twelve Brefs Eights, with Two Brefs Thirty six Pound Carronades on her Quarter Deck and Forecastle, and Three Hundred and Fifty-six Men. She is a very fine Frigate, Six Years old, and just completely fitted at Toulon. The small Vessels with her had Ordnance Stores, &c. &c. for the same Place, and I am fearful Two or Three have got in.

Captain Gower speaks in great Praise of Mr. Lloyd, the first Lieutenant of the Pomone, and also of all the rest of his Officers and Ship's Company.

The Phoenix not being able to get nearer than random Shot, did not fire: Captain Ballard in the Pearl, when it was doubtful at which Point the Wind would fix, very judiciously kept between the Enemy and Port Longone, should he have attempted to enter it.

I am sorry to add a List of Two killed and Four wounded on board the Pomone, One of the former Mr. Thomas Cook, Boatswain, and One of the latter Lieutenant Charles Douglas of the Marines.

who has lost a Leg. I have not yet received the correct Account of the Loss of the Enemy.

I am, &c. L. W. HALSTED.

P. S. Since writing the Above, I am sorry to add that Lieutenant Douglas has died of his Wounds.

SIR,

I Have the Honor of transmitting, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter, with its Inclosure, received by me from Rear-Admiral Sir John Borlase Warren, conveying the satisfactory Intelligence of His Majesty's late Ship Success having been recovered from the Possession of the Enemy, and their own Frigate La Bravoure destroyed by the active Exertions of Captains Halsted, Cockburn, and Gower, of His Majesty's Ships the Phoenix, La Minerve, and La Pomone.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

KEITH.

Retoun, at Sea, 8th September 1801.

MY LORD,

I Have much Satisfaction in communicating to you Captain Halsted's Letter of the 2d Instant, informing me of the Capture of His Majesty's late Ship the Success, and the Destruction of La Bravoure Frigate of 46 Guns, being the whole of the Enemy's Squadron employed in the Attack of Porto Ferrajo in the Island of Elba.

I feel much indebted to Captain Halsted, who commanded His Majesty's Frigates I had stationed for the Defence of Elba, and also to Captains Cockburn and Gower, for their Zeal and good Conduct, as well as every Officer and Man in the Squadron, and trust that the Merit they have exhibited on this Occasion will entitle them to your Lordship's Approbation and Favour.

I have the Honor, &c.

(Signed) J BORLASE WARREN.

Right Honorable Lord Keith,
&c. &c. &c.

*Phoenix, off Vada, near Leghorn,
September 2, 1801.*

SIR,

I Beg Leave to acquaint you, that while at Anchor off Piombino for the Purpose of preventing Supplies being sent by the Enemy from that Place to Port Longone, at Half-past Six A.M.

His Majesty's Ship Minerve, which had joined and parted from me the Day before, was seen in the N. W. standing towards the Phoenix, firing Guns, and with the Signal flying for an Enemy. I immediately made the Pomone Signal to chase that Way, she having joined me two Days before, and got the Phoenix under Sail, upon which the Minerve bore up, and made all Sail to the Northward, the Pomone and Phoenix following. About Nine o'Clock we saw Two Frigates to the Northward, steering towards Leghorn, apparently French, and between Ten and Eleven we observed that the nearest to us had run aground on the Shoal off Vada, and upon the Approach of the Squadron, and a Shot being fired towards her from the Minerve in passing, she struck her Colours without firing a Gun, and was taken Possession of by the Pomone. It was additional Pleasure when I found her to be His Majesty's late Ship Success, commanded by Monsieur Britel. The Minerve being the headmost Ship went on in Pursuit of the other, which was endeavouring to get to Leghorn, but fortunately the Wind shifting to the Northward, enabled the Minerve to get well up with the Enemy before he could accomplish his Views; and after missing Stays, and attempting to wear, got on Shore under the Lantegnano Battery to the Southward of Leghorn, where her Masts soon went by the Board, and the Ship totally lost, having struck her Colours without making any Resistance. She proves to have been La Bravoure French Frigate of 46 Guns, commanded by Monsieur Dordelin, carrying Twenty-eight Twelve-Pounders on her Main Deck, with Two Hundred and Eighty-three Men, the Captain and several of his Officers being made Prisoners of the Minerve's Boats. Captain Cockburn informs me, that in consequence of the Surf running high, Night coming on, and the Enemy on Shore firing upon the Ship and Boats, he was prevented making a greater Number of the Crew Prisoners; and would have burnt her, had it not been a Certainty that many of the Enemy must have perished in the Flames.

Captain Cockburn speaks in the handsomest Manner of Mr. Kelly his first Lieutenant, as well as of the Rest of his Officers and Ship's Company on this Occasion.

I feel much indebted to Captains Cockburn and Gower for their Zeal and Activity, as the taking and destroying these Two Ships completes the Demolition of the Squadron of French Frigates (in less than a Month) which had been employed in the Blockade of Porto Ferrajo.

I beg also to mention, that by the Exertions of Lieutenant Thompson of the Phoenix, and the Men employed under him belonging to the different Ships, the Success has been got off without receiving any material Injury.

The Anxiety shewn by all Ranks on board the Phoenix to get up with the Enemy can be better imagined than I can describe. The above Frigates left Leghorn Mole in the Evening of the 31st ult. with Orders from General Watrain to attack the Phoenix, Intelligence of which I had received about a Week before.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

miral of the White, &c. &c. &c.

Copy of another Letter from Admiral Lord Keith, K. B. &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship Foudroyant, Palette, October 8, 1801.

SIR,

I Have the Pleasure of acquainting you, for the Information of their Lordships, that His Majesty's late Sloop the Bull Dog has been recovered from the Enemy by the gallant Exertions of Captain Lord William Stuart, of His Majesty's Ship Champion; I enclose a Copy of a Letter from Captain Rogers, of the Mercury, conveying the Intelligence of that Event to me; and have the Honor to be, &c.

KEITH.

*Mercury, Gulf of Tarento,
September 17, 1801.*

MY LORD,

HAVING received Information that His Majesty's late Sloop the Bull Dog had sailed from Ancona, on the 25th August, with several Trabacolos for Egypt or Tarento, laden with Cannon, Powder, Shot, &c., I went immediately in Pursuit of them with the Mercury and Champion; and on the Morning of the 15th, just entering the Gulf of Tarento, we had the Satisfaction to discover the St. Dorothea in chase of the above mentioned Vessels, but at a very great Distance to Windward, and it was impossible to get near enough to keep Sight of them after Dark; however we continued beating to Windward all Night, and at Day-light the Champion made the Signal for seeing them to Leeward close in with Gallipoli: but she was unable to prevent their anchoring under the Guns of the Garrison; this was however no check to the Gallantry of Lord William Stuart, who persevered in a very distinguished Manner, notwithstanding the Fire from the Batteries and the Bull Dog, until he got close under her Stern, and then gave her so warm a Return, that in a few Minutes she hauled down her Colours, and the Cable being cut, was soon without Reach of the Batteries.

There were Four Trabacolos and a Tartan with the Bull Dog, all of which had warped close to the Walls of the Garrison, except one Trabacolo, which was also well in and defended by the Batteries; but the Mercury was enabled to get so near as to drop a Boat and bring her off without Mischief; she is laden with Brads Mortars, Field Pieces, &c. and was destined for Tarento.

Lord William Stuart reports one Man killed on board the Champion, and several Shot in the Masts and Hull, chiefly from the Batteries.

I have, &c.

THOMAS ROGERS.

Right Hon. Admiral Lord Keith, K. B.

Downing-Street, November 14, 1801.

A Dispatch, of which the following is an Extract, has been received at the Office of the Right Honorable Lord Hobart, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from General the Honorable H. E. Fox, commanding His Majesty's Troops in the Mediterranean, dated Malta, 7th October 1801.

I Have the Honor to enclose to your Lordship a Letter I have received from Lieutenant-Colonel Airey, commanding the Troops in British Pay, in the Island of Elba.

SIR, Porto Ferrajo, September 16, 1801.

I Have the Honor to inform you, that since my last Dispatch, we could observe the Enemy busily employed in strengthening their Works and Batteries round this Place, and especially towards the Church of the Annunciata, and English Fort, where we found they had thrown up some additional Works, and masked all the Embasures, by filling them with Fascines.

Sir John Warren arrived here on the 12th Instant, and from all the Intelligence I had received, I thought, with the Assistance of the Marines of the Fleet, and a Party of Seamen, an Attack from the Garrison might be attended with good Effects; that we might at least Destroy the Batteries, that shut up the Port, and by bringing their Force into the Field, be able to ascertain, how far the Accounts we had received of their Numbers were to be depended on.

The Admiral acceded to my Representation, and on the Morning of the 14th Instant, with the Concurrence of the Governor, a little before Day-light, a Landing was made by Two separate Divisions, amounting in the whole to about 1000 Men, including Tuscan, Peasants, Pioneers, &c. at the same Time that a Reserve was left in the Garrison under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel De Berfy, to make a Sortie from the Gate, if found practicable, and to co-operate with the main Body, in seizing the Works in Front of the Falcone.

The Landings were made with Success, and the Batteries round the Bay were destroyed, but finding our Force not sufficient to complete the whole Business, we re-embarked our Troops with comparatively little Loss, having destroyed the Batteries of Punta Pina, the Grottoes, and Giovanni, with a great Quantity of Powder and made-up Ammunition, and bringing off into the Garrison One Hundred and Fifty Barrels of Gunpowder: we also brought off with us Fifty-three Prisoners, including Three Captains and Two Subalterns.

I feel myself much indebted to the Corps of Marines and Seamen for their Support and Assistance, and was much pleased to see the Steadiness of the Swiss Troops under Captain De Winter; Captain Kneibler of that Corps, who had the Command of the Division sent against Punta Pina, speaks very handsomely of the Detachment of De Berfy's Corps who acted with him on this Occasion.

I beg Leave further to express my Gratitude to Captain White of His Majesty's Ship Renown, for his great Attention in the Arrangement for the Landing, and his Activity in re-embarking the Troops, when a good deal pressed by the Enemy.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) GEORGE AIREY, Lieutenant-Colonel.

I cannot close this Letter without submitting to your Excellency the very meritorious Conduct and uncommon Zeal and Attention of Messrs. Grant and Lettedale, in preparing and providing every Thing necessary for the Operations of the Day.

Return of the Killed, Wounded, and Missing, in the Attack of the Enemy's Batteries on the Island of Elba, on the 14th Instant.

De Berfy's Corps.—3 missing.

Swiss Corps.—5 killed, 14 wounded, 11 missing.

Tuscan Corps.—12 killed, 9 wounded, 14 missing.
Total.—17 killed, 23 wounded, 28 missing.

I have not yet got the Return of Seamen and Marines.

Captain Long, of the Vincego Brig, was unfortunately mortally wounded, and died the next Day; Lieutenant Clarke, of the Marines, wounded and Prisoner.

(Signed) GEORGE AIREY, Lieutenant-Colonel.

The Honourable General Fox, &c. &c. &c.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament of the Twenty-sixth George II. this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been received at this Office that a Vessel marked on the Stern, "Supply of London," Burthen about One Hundred and Eighty-seven Tons, wholly dismantled, was brought into Tenby by some Boats from that Port. Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Foudroyant, off Alexandria, August 27, 1801.

SIR,

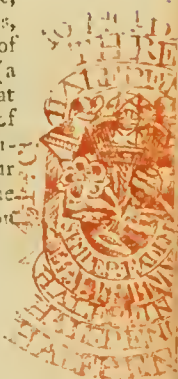

MY Letter of the 5th Instant acquainted you, for the Information of their Lordships, that the Embarkation of General Belliard's Corps was carrying into Execution with all possible Dispatch; but, on account of the Difficulty of getting forward the immense Quantity of Baggage that they brought with them from Cairo, the Operation was protracted till the 8th. The Ships of War, as well as the Transports, however, were directed to proceed by Divisions. The Braakel, with the First Division, sailed on the 4th; the Inflexible, Dolphin, and Ulysses, with the Second, on the 6th; and the Experiment and Pallas, with the Last, on the 10th, carrying with them between Thirteen and Fourteen Thousand Individuals of all Descriptions.

The Army from Cairo moved on forthwith to the Camp before Alexandria; and the General, who did me the Honor of spending some Days with me while the Embarkation of the French was going on, resolved on transporting by the Mareotis, to the Westward of Alexandria, a Corps of about Five Thousand Men, under the Orders of Major-General Coote, to divide the Enemy's Force and Attention, to invest the Town closely on that Side, and cut off all farther Hope of Reinforcement or Supplies by Land. On the 12th I proceeded with Lieutenant-Colonel Anstruther, the Quarter-Master-General, to examine the Enemy's Position on the Side of the Lake, and the Strength of the Flotilla that they had assembled there; and having ascertained that their Armed Force could be easily subdued, and that a Debarkation could be effected with little or no Difficulty, the General determined to carry the Measure into immediate Effect; to secure the Landing from Interruption, Captain Stevenson, of the Europa, who is continued in the Command of the Flotilla, was forthwith directed to take a Station in Front of the Gun-Boats and Armed Boats which the Enemy had assembled on the Lake, and drawn up in a Line under the Protection of Batteries thrown up for their Defence, to keep them in check till they could be seized or destroyed. On the Evening of the 16th, all the Boats of the Ships of War and Transports in this Bay were assembled in the Mareotis, with as many Germs as could be collected from the Nile, for the Purpose of receiving the Troops, who were embarked in the Night, and landed without Opposition the next Morning, under the Superintendence of Captain Elphinstone, considerably further to the Westward than was intended, the Wind not admitting of the Boats reaching the Shore nearer to the Town; the Enemy seeing no Prospect left of saving their Armed Boats, set Fire to them and blew them all up in the course of this and the following Day, except Two or Three which have fallen into our Hands; whilst the Landing was carrying into effect, Captain Sir William Sidney Smith, of the Tigre, was directed with some Sloops of War and Armed Boats to make a Demonstration of Attack upon the Town.

On the Night of the 17th, Major-General Coote was enabled to establish Batteries against Marabout, a small fortified Island that protects the Entrance into the Great Harbour of Alexandria, on the Western Side, and distant from the Town about Seven or Eight Miles, which, for many Reasons, it was important to possess; Rear-Admiral Sir Richard Bickerton, having the Command of the Squadron blockading the Port, directed Armed Launches from the Ships to co-operate with the Troops, and the Garrison, consisting of near Two Hundred Men, unequal to farther Resistance, surrendered as Prisoners of War on the Evening of the 21st; Mr. Hull, Midshipman, and one Seaman, of the Ajax, were killed on this Service, and Two Seamen of the Northumberland, wounded.

On the Afternoon of the same Day the Rear-Admiral ordered the Cynthia, Port Mahon, Victorieuse, and Bon Citoyenne, with Three Turkish Corvettes, to proceed into the Harbour under the Direction of the Honorable Captain Cochrane of the Ajax, (a Channel having been previously surveyed with great Industry and Precision by Lieutenant Withers of the Kent;) and on the Morning of the 22d Major-General Coote's Detachment moved forward Four or Five Miles on the narrow Isthmus leading to the Town, formed by the Mareotis or Inundation on the South Side, and the Harbour on the North; Captain Stevenson with the Gun Vessels on the Lake covering the Right Flank, and Captain Cochran, with the Sloops of War and Armed Boats, protecting their Left. The Position which the Major-General took up, and that occupied by our little Squadron, which has been since reinforced by the Diane, completed the Blockade of the Town. The Rear-Admiral gives great Commendation to the Honorable Captain Cochran, for the zealous and judicious Manner in which he executed the Service entrusted to him. Soon after our Ships entered the Harbour, the Enemy sunk several Vessels between our advanced Ships and their Vessels in the Port, to obstruct our further Progress to the Eastward, and moved their Frigates and Corvettes from Fig Tree Point close up to the Town.

General Menou finding himself closely pressed on the Eastward of the Town by the Commander in Chief, who had carried some of the Enemy's important Redoubts, and established strong Batteries against their entrenched Lines; and on the Western Side by Major-General Coote, who had, during the preceding Night, driven in several of their Out-posts, and advanced close up to an important Position which the Enemy seemed conscious of being unable to defend; sent out, on the Evening of the 26th, Proposals for an Armistice of Three Days to arrange Terms of Capitulation, which I have no Doubt will soon terminate in the Surrender of the Town.

I have the Honor to be, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

As several Artificers and Manufacturers, Subjects of Great Britain, have, from Time to Time, gone into Foreign Countries to exercise their several Callings, contrary to the Laws of these Kingdoms, the following Abstracts of Acts of Parliament of Their late Majesties King George the First and Second, and of His present Majesty, for preventing such Practices, are published, for the Information of all Persons who may be ignorant of the Penalties they may incur by Disobedience to them: And it will be observed, that such Penalties likewise extend to those who are any ways concerned or instrumental in the Sending or Enticing Artificers or Manufacturers out of these Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brasses, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorized by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom; by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

Resolved,

THAT the Thanks of this Court be given to the Right Honorable Sir William Staines, Knight, late Lord Mayor, for his upright, unremitted, and impartial Administration of the important Duties of Chief Magistrate of this City:

For his unceasing Solicitude and active Exertions to relieve the Distresses of the poorer Classes of Society, by his laudable Endeavours to reduce the Price of Bread and other Necessaries of Life:

For his Efforts to repress the Evils of Monopoly, by directing Prosecutions against Foresters, Engrossers, and Regrators:

For the judicious and effectual Steps he took in order to counteract the nefarious Misrepresentations of the interested Dealers in Corn and Flour, by ascertaining the actual Quantity of Grain weekly imported into the Port of London, and so properly promulgating this important Information from Time to Time to the Public:

For his Vigilance in detecting the fraudulent Sales and Returns of the Quantity and Price of Flour from which the Assize of Bread is regulated:

For the prompt and able Arrangement he made for obtaining a Supply of Seamen for His Majesty's Navy, at a Period when the Nation was threatened with an Invasion; and for the qualified Manner in which he permitted the Search for Seamen concealing themselves within this City and Liberties, thereby evincing his Zeal for the Public Service, and a due Regard to the Rights and Privileges of his fellow Citizens:

For his Kindness and Liberality to the distressed, and his compassionate Attention to the misguided and unfortunate:

For his liberal Hospitality, without Ostentation; and for the honorable and independent Manner in which he has discharged all the various Duties of the Office of Chief Magistrate of this City.

Admiralty-Office, December 5, 1801.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Sir John Borlase Warren, Bart. and K. B. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Port Mahon, 24th October 1801.

SIR,

I Have enclosed to you the Copy of a Letter relative to the Transactions that have taken place at Porto Ferrajo, which I request you will be pleased to lay before my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

I have the Honor to remain, &c. &c. &c.

JOHN BORLASE WARREN.

SIR, Porto Ferrajo, October 11, 1801.

IN my Letter of Yesterday I had the Honor to report to you, that the Enemy had shewn lately some Disposition to advance and take Ground nearer our Works, and this Morning I found they had thrown up an Intrenchment of Earth and Gabions upon a Peninsula or Tongue of Land within Two Hundred Yards of our Works.

I immediately determined to destroy the Work and dislodge them before they could have Time to strengthen or bring any Guns upon it; I appointed De Bercy's Corps for this Service with a Party of Peasants to destroy the Work, and the Maltese Corps, under Major Weir, to support and cover them; about Eleven o'Clock they crossed the Ditch, drove the Enemy from the Ground, and destroyed the Work.

The Enemy made Two or Three Attempts to advance in Force, but were completely kept in Check by our Grape-Shot from the Batteries, which were admirably well served; their Batteries kept up a very heavy Fire of Round and Grape-Shot, which did us very little Harm. The Bombardment being completed, the Troops returned into the Works, having suffered inconsiderably in Number; though we have to lament One Officer killed and Three wounded.

I was a good deal inclined to have kept Possession of the Ground, but upon Consideration of the Weakness of our Force, I thought it scarcely tenable so close to the Enemy's Works, more especially as we were advised this Morning of their having got a Reinforcement of Two Hundred Men from Piombino, Two or Three Nights ago. I flatter myself, however, they are equally convinced of their Inability to keep a Post so near us.

The Enemy admit between Sixty and Seventy killed and wounded, and Three Officers; and from what we could see ourselves, I am persuaded they are within the Mark in this Calculation.

I subjoin a List of Killed and Wounded and Missing. I am, &c. GEO. AIREY.

Return of Killed, Wounded, and Missing at Porto Ferrajo, October 11, 1801.

Total.—6 killed; 18 wounded; 1 missing.

Names of Officers killed and Wounded.

TO MERCHANTS, FACTORS, CAPTAINS of SHIPS,
&c. &c. &c.

GENTLEMEN,

I Have received a great Variety of Applications from Merchants and others concerned in Foreign Trade, complaining of the Difficulty they find in procuring the Genuine Dr. Anderson's Scots Pills; several of your Correspondents abroad have repeatedly sent to my Warehouse, No. 165, Strand, Parts of the printed Bills, to ascertain whether they were authentic.

To avoid these Inconveniences in future, I trouble you with this Letter, for the express Purpose of stating the Two distinct Criteria to ascertain the Genuine Pills from dangerous Counterfeit:

1st. My Name, B. H. Inglish, No. 165, Strand, opposite the New Church, is engraved in, and forms a Part of the Stamp, by Order of the Commissioners.

2d. B. H. Inglish is signed at the Bottom of the printed Bills.

To counterfeit the First is a capital Felony under the Stamp Acts.

The Second is punishable both by Indictment and Action at Law for Damages.

An Attention to either of these Two Cautions must prevent Counterfeits, as I am determined to prosecute to the utmost Rigour all Persons who commit either of these Forgeries. I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient Servant,

B. H. INGLISH.

Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant Wooldridge, commanding the Pasley Hired Brig, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Gibraltar, the 31st of October 1801.

SIR,

I Beg Leave to enclose, for their Lordships' Information, the Copy of a Letter to my Lord Keith, giving an Account of an Action and Capture of a Spanish Privateer Ship by His Majesty's Brig under my Command; and have the Honor of being, Sir, &c. &c. &c. W. WOOLDRIDGE.

*His Majesty's Armed Brig
Pasley, Gibraltar.*

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor of informing you, that, in Execution of your Orders, on Wednesday the 28th Instant, Cape de Gat bearing W. N. W. Twenty Leagues, I fell in with a Polacca Ship, who immediately gave Chase; and, from her being to Windward, we very soon neared each other and commenced the Action, which continued for an Hour, when, finding her Guns much too heavy, and the Gaffs, most of the Stays and Main Rigging shot away, the only Alternative was to lie her on board, which was done by running across her Hawse, and lashing her Bowspirit to the Capstern: The Contest now became severe; but, from the Intrepidity of the Pasley's Ship's Company, notwithstanding the very great Superiority of Numbers on board the Enemy, she was carried in about a Quarter of an Hour, and proved the Spanish Ship Privateer El Virgine del Rosario, pierced for Twenty Guns, but only Ten mounted, viz. Two long Twenty-four-Pounders, and Eight long Twelves, with a Complement of Ninety-four Men, belonging to Malaga, on a Cruise, out Twenty Days, but had taken nothing.

I beg to enclose a List of the Killed and Wounded; and am, &c. W. WOOLDRIDGE.

Admiral Lord Keith, K. P.

&c. &c. &c.

Officers and Seamen killed on board the Pasley.

Mr. Ambrose Lions, Master, wounded dangerously in the Head.

Admiralty-Office, December 22, 1801.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Sea, the 14th of September, 1801.

SIR,

IT is with great Concern that I acquaint you, for the Information of their Lordships, of the Capture of His Majesty's Ship the Swiftsure, by Gantheaume's Squadron, on his Return to France, after his unsuccessful Attempt to debark Troops on the Coast of Egypt; I enclose a Copy of Captain Hallowell's Communication of that unfortunate Event; and have the Honor to be, Sir, &c. &c.

KEITH.

On board L'Indivisible, in Toulon Road, 24th July 1801.

MY LORD,

IT is with infinite Concern, I have to inform your Lordship, of the Capture of His Majesty's late Ship Swiftsure, by a Squadron of French Ships under the Command of Rear-Admiral Gantheaume.

Having separated from my Convoy, consisting of Carrels and light Transports, on the 22d Ultimo, I was making the best of my Way to Malta, when on the Morning of the 24th, at Half-past Three, the Wind at N.W. Cape Derne, bearing S.W.

distant about Seven Leagues, we discovered Five Sail to Leeward of us nearly Hull-down.

As Lieutenant Sheppard, of the Pigmy Cutter, had informed me on the 19th that an Enemy's Squadron had quitted Durassio on the 7th, where they had attempted to land their Troops, I concluded the Ships in Sight were those of which he had given me Intelligence, and made all the Sail possible to get from them: At Sunrise my Suspicions were realized: we clearly distinguished Four of them to be of the Line, the other a large Frigate, and their Signal Flags soon pointed them out to be Enemies. At Half past Five Two of the Line of Battle Ships tacked, by Signal, and stood on till they fetched into our Wake, while the other Two and the Frigate stood upon the same Tack with us. At Eight o'Clock the Two Ships and Frigate having fore-reached considerably on us, tacked and stood towards us until they got on our Lee Quarter, when they tacked again. From their great Superiority of Sailing they closed with us so fast as to be nearly within Gun-Shot by Two P. M., and as the Ships Altern were coming up very fast, I determined on bearing down and engaging the Two Ships and Frigate to Leeward, hoping to disable one of them before the whole Squadron could be brought into Action, and thereby effect our Escape by getting to Leeward of them: Three o'Clock I bore up and steered to pass Astern of the sternmost Ship, all our steering Sails set on the Starboard Side, when the Enemy tacked and stood toward us:—At Half past Three the Indivisible, of Eighty Guns, bearing Rear-Admiral Gantheaume's Flag, and the Dix Aout, of Seventy-four Guns, being in close Order, and within Half Gun-Shot of us, opened their Fire, which was instantly answered, and a warm Action ensued. Their great Superiority in point of Sailing gave them every Advantage of Position, and baffled all our Attempts to get to Leeward of them. At Thirty-seven Minutes past Four the Jean Bart and Constitution, of Seventy-four Guns, being within Gun-Shot, and closing upon our Starboard Quarter very fast, the Indivisible almost on board of us on our Larboard Bow, and the Dix Aout on our Larboard Quarter, our Fore-Yard and Fore Top-sail-Yard shot away, all our Running and Part of our standing Rigging cut to Pieces, the Fore-Mast, Mizzen-Mast, and Main-Yard badly wounded, our Deck lumbered with the Wreck and Sails, all Hopes of making our Escape or falling in with any Succour being cut off, and only one of the Enemy's Ships apparently much damaged, I thought farther Resistance, in our crippled State, would be exposing the Lives of valuable Men without any Advantage to their Country resulting from it, with Pain, therefore, I ordered His Majesty's Colours to be struck, after an Action of One Hour and Seven Minutes.

Most sincerely, my Lord, do I lament our having been opposed to so very superior a Force, as from the steady and gallant Conduct of the Officers and Men I had the Honor to command on this Occasion, and with whom I had been acting nearly Four Years on various Services, I have not a Doubt of what would have been the Issue of a Contest on more equal Terms. Our Loss has been principally in Masts, Yards, Sails, and Rigging, having only Two Men killed, Lieutenant Davis, and Seven Men wounded, (Two of whom are since dead of their Wounds,) the Enemy's Intention being to disable us in our Rigging, in which they succeeded too well: at the Commencement of this unequal Contest, we were Eighty-six Men short of Complement, and had Fifty-nine Sick, those who returned from the Army before Alexandria, having introduced a bad Fever into the Ship.

Four Hundred Men were put on board the Swiftsure on the Evening of her Capture, many of the Prisoners removed, and the Ship in so crippled a State as to render it necessary to take her in Tow; the next Day Carpenters and Seamen from all the Ships were sent on board to repair her Damages, and Soldiers to complete her Number to Seven Hundred; and with all their Exertions, and the Advantage of smooth Water, it was Six Days before they were able to make sail.

On the 4th of July, between Lampidosa and Pantalaria, they fell in with and captured the Mohawk Letter of Marque, from Bristol to Malta, laden with various Articles of Merchandise; on the 22d they anchored in this Road, in general, very sickly, without having landed any Part of their Troops on the Coast of Egypt or Barbary, although they attempted a Debarcation at Derne, on the 23d Ultimo, but from the hostile Appearance and Reception of the Natives, they did not persevere, and returned to their Ships without landing a single Person.

I feel it a Duty I owe to Admiral Gantheaume to mention to your Lordship the handsome Manner in which we have all been treated by the Officers of his Squadron, and by him in particular, the strictest Orders have been issued to preserve the Property of every Individual, and he has done every Thing in his Power to render the Situation of the Officers and Men as comfortable as possible.

I have the Honor to be, My Lord, &c.

(Signed) BEN HALLOWELL.

Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B.

&c. &c. &c.
